

MENTAL HEALTH & WELLBEING PRACTITIONER RECRUITMENT PACK

Welcome to Penumbra:

Thank you for wanting to join our team. At Penumbra Mental Health, we pride ourselves on being a great place to work where you can grow and thrive in a supportive team.

Penumbra is one of Scotland's largest mental health charities. We support around 1800 adults and young people every week and employ 450 staff across Scotland.

Founded in 1985, we work to promote mental health and wellbeing for all, prevent mental ill health for people who are 'at risk', and to support people with mental ill health to live fulfilling lives.

About Us

We are Penumbra Mental Health, a pioneering charity providing dedicated services for people with mild to serious and enduring mental ill health.

We support people on their journey to better mental health, by working with each person to find their own way forward.

From being there for people in crisis to suicide prevention, supported living to self-harm management and peer support. We are with those we support every step of their journey to a better place. People's experiences are at the centre of everything that we do. We champion peer workers; they know that recovery is possible, because they've been there too.

The power of people's lived experience enables us to provide pioneering services which transform lives. Find out more here: penumbra.org.uk

Mental Health & Wellbeing Practitioner

Location: Midlothian

Salary: £22,426 – £23,635

Fixed term contract

If you are looking for a rewarding career and to work within an epic team that will help you grow and thrive, then you have come to the right place. Here you can start your day knowing what you do really does make a difference!

We are looking for a Mental Health & Wellbeing Practitioner to join our amazing MHARS team.

You will be working as part of a multi-disciplinary team, alongside Midlothian's Community Mental Health Team, providing a distress/crisis line, a single point of access to MHARS for residents of Midlothian. You will respond to calls in a manner guided by the service principles, being inclusive, sensitive and respectful.

From the moment you answer the telephone, you will listen and ensure that you understand the issues that has led to distress/crisis for that person, providing an immediate response and with the support of the Intensive Home Treatment Team, establishing which is the best support for that person. Understanding each person's unique situation, resulting in fast tailored support and finding ways to successfully resolve their distress/crisis situation and assist in planning for the future.

Once the initial period of distress/crisis has been addressed, you will support connections to additional, statutory or community support and/or deliver a Distress Brief Intervention (DBI) response to those in distress. This will involve community based problem solving support, wellness and distress management planning, supporting connections and signposting for a period of up to 14 days. You will be flexible and responsive, offering the medium support that the supported person feels most comfortable with. You will assist people using this service, to establish and maintain a meaningful and fulfilling life in their community.

Mental Health and Wellbeing Practitioners play a central role in the planning and provision of quality, recovery focused support to people who use this service. We can offer you a tonne of employee benefits, and we can promise you'll be inspired by some pretty amazing humans every single day. We will support you on your own career path; developing new skills, accessing formal and informal learning experiences and providing opportunities to put your continual progress into practice.
